

Husky Happenings for the Week of: November 19, 2018

GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENT:

No School Wednesday, Thursday & Friday Thanksgiving Break

Senior Class Graduation Meeting - Tomorrow, Tuesday, November 20th during advisory Dan McCormick from Jostens will be here to present on graduation details including cap & gown orders, announcements, and graduation memorabilia. Please go directly to the auditorium and sit in your designated homeroom rows where attendance will be taken.

Multicultural Club is selling cultural foods on Monday the 19th, and Tuesday the 20th after school in the commons from 3-4pm. Foods like egg rolls (chicken and veggie), tamales, Mexican rice, and more! There will be different food and egg rolls every day. It's first come first serve, so bring your money! Happy Thanksgiving for good food!

HOSA: WI Humane Society Wish List Drive until November 29th

Did you know that about 68% of American Households have a pet? Thousands of animals come to the WI Humane Society to find their forever homes. You can help today by donating items off of their wish list!! Some of their top items include: Dog and cat food, soft dog treats, baby wipes, toys & more! Every item counts towards making a difference in an animal's life!! Please see your homeroom teacher for a complete list of what's needed.

Bring your donation to Room B-109 after school to be entered to win a prize from the raffle drawing:

$25 gift card to Marcus Theater

$15 iTunes gift card

$10 Starbucks gift card

* 1 Item = 1 entry to the drawing *

Drawing held on November 29th at the HOSA meeting and announced on Monday December 3rd.

PBIS:

Happy Monday Hale! As a reminder, this month PBIS is focusing on Mindfulness. Mindfulness is a state of being conscious or aware of something, such as: feelings, thoughts, stressors, and bodily sensations. Being aware of how your body and mind is feeling has the ability to help you make sound, rational decisions because you are more likely to feel more in control, objective and patient.

Discussion Question: What are some ways you manage stress in your daily life?

Check out this Student Stress & Anxiety Guide
