

Husky Happenings for the Week of:

September 23, 2019

GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENT:

Monday Sept 23-No School for Students

Youth Commission

Today, Tuesday, September 24 during homeroom Mayor Dan Devine will be here at Nathan Hale High School presenting in the auditorium on the Youth Commission's program which is an opportunity for students to get involved in their community and experience what life is like in the political world. This commission will also give students an opportunity to share their own personal opinions, beliefs and views on community based issues in an effort to make our community a safer and more enjoyable place to live. Come learn more about this opportunity and then decide if you would like to be apart of this throughout the school year.

Culminating last week's Safe & Supported assembly with speaker Jeremy Triblett, tonight, Tuesday, September 24, a community-wide event called "I Spy" for parents/guardians only will then be held at Nathan Hale High School from 6:00 p.m. - 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium. The "I Spy"-Parent Prevention Program will help parents learn about the hidden indicators of teen substance use.

As an incentive, parents/guardians who attend tonight's presentation will receive a $10 discount voucher for their child to use toward the purchase of a Homecoming, Winter Formal, or Prom dance ticket or a $10 gift card to Chick-fil-a.

Junior Class Meeting: Tomorrow during homeroom you will have a class meeting regarding the ACT test and the practice test being given during the school day on October 9th. Please come directly to the auditorium after 1st hour, sit in your assigned rows as attendance will be taken down there.

SENIORS & PARENTS : Financial Aid Night is Wednesday, September 25th at 6:00 p.m.

Please join us in the Nathan Hale High School auditorium for our annual Financial Aid Night! Topics covered include an overview of financial aid, completing the FAFSA, and scholarship opportunities. We will have a special guest speaker from the WI Educational Opportunity Program to present on these topics and be available for questions afterwards. Handouts and resources will be distributed as well. Join us as we cover this important topic and prepare students for post-secondary education. We look forward to seeing you there! The FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) opens on October 1st. Make sure to take advantage of this opportunity and apply as soon as possible.

Hale Blood Drive: Tomorrow, Wednesday, September 25th from 8-1 pm

See Ms. Menger in Room B109 if you need to still sign up. Drink plenty of water, eat a good breakfast, and DON'T skip lunch. Bring your photo ID and remember your consent form.

Attention Athletes: This Thursday night at 7 pm in the Hale auditorium member of the Army Westpoint Wrestling team will be speaking to ANY interested athlete on all things related to being an athlete at the next level, including work ethic, training, education, motivation, etc.... Once again, this is open to all schools in the district, any sports, coaches, and parents. Don't miss this opportunity to hear from these highly disciplined and motivated athletes.
